PROFILE

Ahluyu S V Naiud owes all her achievements to her father & guru Late Mr. R Venkatesan

Under the tutelage of her father she becomes the only women in India with the qualification LTCL and winning the rolling trophy, 'Lady Papworth's Lyre' in the year 1993, which is yet to be rolled to another LTCL Classical Guitarist.

After a brief period of teaching in Singapore, she returned to establish a Music Academy to cater quality music education in par with international standards here in India.

Her Passion and dedication in the field of music education has transformed many young and old students
